Devin Moses aka DEVMO is everything but a typical rap artist. As a petite red-head from Santa Monica, audiences are in pure shock when she starts flowing with fluidity and bite while also delivering a message she is experiencing in her daily life. DEVMO strives for authenticity and entertainment, and on that alone, she's opened locally and internationally for artists like Angel Haze, Snow Tha Product, Elle King, and more. DEVMO just returned from her first 36 city tour and is currently performing at pride events across the country. She dropped her first single of 2019 "Stayin' Here" in May and plans to drop a handful more throughout the rest of the year. It's safe to say DEVMO has found her sound as she combines melodic choruses and fast paced rapping verses to create a style all her own.

Great nephew of award-winning Harptones ("Sunday Kind of Love, Life is But a Dream" & more) member, Willie Winfield, Louis Winfield, Jr. was born & raised in Greensboro, NC where he developed a deep love of music. By age 7, Louis learned to play Tighten Up by Archie Bell on the guitar. As he grew older, his interest with music grew deeper, which led him to learn & master other instruments; eventually leading him to become a world-class musician. After finishing school, Louis's dreams of being a musician grew more intense landing him a spot with the artist, Tom Browne ("Jamaica Funk"). From there, he performed internationally throughout Europe with his Godfather & Blues legend, Roy Roberts. Louis was then given an open invitation to join Johnson in the studio, furthering his education in both producing and in the music business. Louis's career got a major boost when he played live with The Tams. He also played alongside their daughter, Tiny, in her Grammy Award-winning group Xscape ("Just Kicking It"). Today, Louis lives in Nashville, TN. Quelle the Prophet

Regions: All

It is usually unexpected silences when artist/producer Quelle the Prophet (Q.T.P) takes the stage. Due to his striking look of indifference and chubby stature, the crowd is unsure of how to take this not-so-stereotypical image of a hip hop artist. However, the silences are quickly turned into adoration by the time Quelle is finishing up... the first song of his set! With a jazz/soul fusion incorporated into his hip hop roots, Q.T.P can sometimes surprise audiences with a soulful record immediately after performing a blood-pumping dance track (and vice versa!) Q.T.P started traveling the southeast in 2014; honing his craft by working with the hottest up-and-coming artists, and participating in multiple curated shows/open mics/talent showcases. Q.T.P is also one half of a Southern Duo called Closely Related (Partnering with long-time friend from New Orleans, Todd P.) Currently Q.T.P. has been under the radar since 2014; only releasing one song Outlet (Straight Up) on multiple music streaming platforms, and being spotted performing at curated shows. Once there was a time

Q.T.P was releasing countless music via Soundcloud and Datpiff; but that has slowed down, as he intends to spend even more time traveling, performing, and growing his fan base.

Ashley International, Inc.

Did you know that, at any given moment, 71% of the U.S. workforce is on the job hunt? And get this... Career Coach, Speaker and Hay House Author Ashley Stahl argues that this statistic isn't due to job seekers outgrowing their job, but rather because most job seekers aren't clear on who they are or what they want... As a result, they search tirelessly for a job that feels like home to them and accidentally turn their resume into a graveyard of trial and error... Ashley is here to remind you that it doesn't have to be this way, be it through her e-courses on how to find your purpose at work or land a new job you love, her books, her Forbes column or through her speaking. She's here to help millennials learn the truth about career clarity: a lack of clarity isn't about clarity... It's about being disconnected from themselves—their likes, interests and authentic selves. She's walked on more than 100 stages as keynote, including TEDx, IBM, Steve Harvey's VAULT Conference, MGM Grand, and has also been featured in the Wall Street Journal, Financial Times, and more to help today's working professional connect to who they truly are, their confidence and best career options. Named a "Top 99 Foreign Policy Leader Under 33" by Diplomatic Courier Magazine for her work in counterterrorism for the Pentagon at a young age, Ashley's no stranger to career pivots, leadership and self-exploration. Ashley earned her Master's degree in international relations from King's College London, and another Master's in Spiritual Psychology at the University of Santa Monica. She holds a Bachelor's degree from University of Redlands in government, history and French. She's a fluent French speaker, and intermediate in Arabic.

I AM A COCKEYED OPTIMIST ORG INC

Region: West

I Am A Cockeyed Optimist is a 501(c) (3) non-profit organization dedicated to spreading a message of hope and optimism. We believe that through the darkness, hope can emerge. This is a message that anyone can use, but one that we find especially helpful for teenagers and young adults. One of the ways our organization works to spread this message is by encouraging positive expression of emotions through the arts. Whether it is performance or visual arts, we believe having healthy means of expression provide for a richer and more hopeful life. Our Artistic Assembly program is lead by our founder, Cynda Renae and is part lecture and part concert. During the 45 minute program, Cynda shares her story of childhood neglect and rape at gunpoint, but how expressing herself through music helped her keep going. Students will be treated to a full band performance from Cynda and her band following her speech. The band also makes themselves available to meet with students after the program. The Artistic Assemblies help teens and young adults because many are afraid to express their emotions which can lead to self-harm or violence and bullying against others. The assembly provides a vehicle to start a conversation. The response we have received from students has been incredible, as many students come to us afterward and share their personal stories. One student in attendance sent us a message about our program, "I loved the songs that you played today for our school. I was truly inspired on being a better person and being more positive about myself." The Artistic Assemblies also let the community know about our database of crisis resources. Many people who need help do not know where to look, so our website provides lists of Suicide Helplines, Rape Treatment Helplines, Domestic Violence Helplines, Homeless Shelters, Eating Disorder and Substance Abuse facilities and 12-Step programs.

KATHRYN ORFORD ENTERPRISES

Regions: All

Kathryn has spent the last 20+ years empowering young people. Excelling as a top level performer comes naturally to Kathryn. As the daughter of a champion cyclist and being a naturally gifted athlete, winning has always been an expectation from her earliest years. As a student, Kathryn was recognized as an elite athlete competing in track and field as well as several team sports on a regional and state level. As a teenage transitioning to dance Kathryn was forced to up her game, because she was told she'd never make it as a professional dancer due to her age and physical limitations. Applying her athletic focus to this new endeavor, she went on to prove her critics wrong, achieving tremendous success before opening a highly respected school of performing arts, where her students consistently won regional, state and national championships. Despite these professional successes, Kathryn's toxic relationship with a partner resulted in a nervous breakdown that left her emotionally exhausted and suicidal. Through a combination of pure-luck and caring intervention, Kathryn chose life, and set about on a journey of self-discovery while learning to love herself from the inside out. Instead of looking to others for validation that she was good enough. Training with the world's leading authorities in self-esteem, self-worth, human behavior and human potential, Kathryn is now in demand as a speaker, exceptional performance coach and workshop leader. Her International Best Selling Book "Become your #1 Fan ~ How to Silence your Inner Critic and Live the Life of your Dreams" made #1 in 5 categories and also features in the Hollywood Movie Butterfly Caught. Born and raised in Australia Kathryn now resides in LA with her daughter and two adorable dogs Tika and Bella.

Letters Aloud

Region: West

Real letters by real people, read by great actors. Letters Aloud connects live audiences to famous (and infamous) historical figures through their intimate personal correspondence. Each show brings together letters from every era, curated to explore a central theme. Letters Aloud was founded in 2013 as a way to connect modern audiences to a rapidly disappearing form of correspondence...the written letter. Each episode focuses on a central theme. Letters are carefully chosen to explore that theme and then handed over to some of Seattle's most accomplished actors...accompanied by live music and a compelling slide show...to read out loud in a theatrical setting. It's fun, it's thought-provoking, and audiences love it! "It makes you reflect on the world and your own life and our personal connection to history." ~Nancy Guppy, host of Seattle Channel's Art Zone "It's like literary crack." ~Washington State University Audience Member

Productive Through Joy

Regions: All

In our increasingly cynical world, true inspiration is an underutilized technology which has the power to activate the inner power of individuals who are often being constrained by some manifestation of fear. As a child borne of an act of violence and given up for adoption to a single mother, I have overcome extraordinary odds to become an entrepreneur, earn my Ph.D. in English literature, land a spot on the New York Times Bestseller's List and land spot on Oprah's TV couch. I KNOW the possible lives in each human being. It brings me tremendous joy to challenge and inspire individuals unleash their possibilities on the world. As an author, a professor of English literature and an inspiring public speaker, I am an expert at telling and analyzing Stories. During college, in particular, there is a verifiable power in writing down your Story. While establishing your educational foundation for success in a competitive world, the act of writing your Story can heal you, empower you and inspire you to be a better, more joyful, human being—and thus, better equipped to do good on the planet and for the planet. This is not hyperbole. This is my personal experience writing my Story, which became a New York Times Bestselling memoir and this is my personal experience teaching memoir writing for over 20 years as an English professor. The Mini-Memoir is the magic potion in Productive Through Joy's Story-based, results-oriented process. The Mini-Memoir & iBrand 1-Day Intensive College Workshop, specifically, is designed to enhance self-awareness, social consciousness, leadership skills and enlightened entrepreneurial productivity.

Fast forward to now, and those same students (some may even call them "adults" these days) have led CMF to become the world's largest student film festival, and now we have helped more than one million students around the world share their stories through film. CMF is unique because as a traveling student film festival and completely turnkey as we provide promotion staff, prizing, posters, press releases, social media support, equipment, registration and more! The winners have the opportunity to move on to the national awards ceremony (TERMINUS) in Hollywood, California, be showcased at the Cannes Film Festival and even streamed on Prime Video. Simply, our belief system is everyone has a story and we want to give you the chance to tell your story.

Ananda Luna

Regions: All

Ananda Luna is a musical project with sounds centring around indie, folk, flamenco, jazz and Hindustani music. Fronted by singer songwriter Anjalirose Ananda Luna hopes to find a home around the world as it brings people together to question the xenophobia, sexism, and homophobia plaguing this constantly changing planet. When Anjali is not collaborating with other musicians Ananda Luna is showcased as a solo act where Anjali uses a classical guitar, loop pedal, and tanpura/ tabla sounds with her I pod. Ananda Luna has been based in Southern Spain this past year and touring most of mainland Europe this summer but the project started when Anjali was living in Western Massachusetts and working with a girls rock camp called IMA, as well as collaborating with musicians in that area as well as Montreal. Anjali's first band was an all-woman indie folk/rock band called Sapphic Prince, with various music projects and bands following after such as "Ginger Libations" and "Space Kase" of which Anjali either fronted or assisted with her keyboard. Ananda Luna brings together interests in sound, healing, and activism to leave audiences with hope to carry that energy forward in the world.

Great nephew of award-winning Harptones ("Sunday Kind of Love, Life is But a Dream" & more) member, Willie Winfield, Louis Winfield, Jr. was born & raised in Greensboro, NC where he developed a deep love of music. By age 7, Louis learned to play Tighten Up by Archie Bell on the guitar. As he grew older, his interest with music grew deeper, which led him to learn & master other instruments; eventually leading him to become a world-class musician. After finishing school, Louis's dreams of being a musician grew more intense landing him a spot with the artist, Tom Browne ("Jamaica Funk"). From there, he performed internationally throughout

Europe with his Godfather & Blues legend, Roy Roberts. After the tour, Roberts took young Louis under his wing; giving him studio time which lead to a one year tour where Louis met General Norman Johnson and his Chairman of the Board band ("Give Me Just a Little More Time"). Louis was then given an open invitation to join Johnson in the studio, furthering his education in both producing and in the music business. Louis's career got a major boost when he played live with The Tams. He also played alongside their daughter, Tiny, in her Grammy Award-winning group Xscape ("Just Kicking It"). Today, Louis lives in Nashville, TN. As the artist and band leader, Kosmic Slop, Louis and his band are focused on bringing the party to diverse audiences around the world with their psychedelic funk, hip-hop, pop, R&B/Soul music. Matt Beilis Music

Regions: All

Matt Beilis is an award-winning singer songwriter piano player! But as a child with severe social anxiety, "professional singer" was the last thing anyone expected him to become. Matt grew up a classical piano prodigy, but never dreamed that music could be his career. That was until college, when he started singing and posting cover videos on Youtube. It wasn't long before Matt's one-of-a-kind voice and style led to shout-outs and shares by stars like Bruno Mars, Ariana Grande, and Ashton Kutcher. Matt went from playing small shows in New York City to touring internationally, supporting iconic acts like Secondhand Serenade, Smokey Robinson, and Jay Leno. Just this summer, he played to a crowd of over 12,000 at a festival in Germany. Matt's original music is also regularly featured in major TV and radio commercials for companies like Victoria's Secret, Taco Bell, Mastercard, Reebok, Target, Volkswagen, Honda, Jeep, and more!
